

I urge the FCC not to grant Southern Bell's petition to deregulate broadband pricing. It will not serve the best interests of the public. I have an ISP that I am very happy with. I fear that the companies that built the internet will eventually be taken over by the large phone companies. Tell them NO.